PC

. Heard the learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the appellant-State.

2. There is no challenge by the State in so far as accused/respondent has been acquitted for the offences punishable under Sections 302 and 307 of the Indian Penal Code. This appeal has been preferred by the State on the ground that the sentence awarded by the learned trial court in respect of the offences punishable under Sections 304 part-II and 326 of the Indian Penal Code is inadequate. After considering the matter, the learned trial court awarded the sentence of 7 years rigorous imprisonment for the offence punishable under Section 304 part-II of the Indian Penal Code.

The trial court also awarded the sentence of 4 years rigorous imprisonment for the offence punishable under Section 326 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. Having considered the matter, we do not find any inadequacy in the sentence awarded by the learned trial court. No case for enhancement is made out. Criminal appeal is dismissed in limini.
